

THE SOCIAL SIDE OF LIFE

EVEN the extreme hot weather of the past week has not fazed Salt Lake society to any great extent. Luncheons and bride parties have been given in spite of the torrid afternoon atmosphere. Out-of-door parties have been more in keeping with the temperature, and the cool veranda of the Country club has furnished a retreat for amusement seekers, several parties having been given at the club during the week. Lawn fetes have also been in order, and a number of beautiful functions of this kind have been given. The lawn party of Mrs. John C. Cutler and Miss Hazel Cutler on Friday night was the largest of last week.

Col. and Mrs. Joseph J. Daynes and Mr. and Mrs. Edgar E. Jenkins have issued invitations for a lawn fete and musicale at the Daynes home, 1542 South Fifth East street, Wednesday evening. The Woman's Republican club will enjoy an outing at Saltair Monday as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Y. Russell. Members of the club are expected to bring their lunch baskets for a picnic supper. The party will leave for the beach at 3:30. The Y. W. C. A. will go to Saltair Tuesday, the members leaving for the bathing resort any time during the day. A picnic supper will be served in the evening. Miss Lucy Wardrop will entertain with a linen shower Monday evening in honor of Miss Rachel Wardrop, a September bride.

One of the most interesting social events of the week will be the annual baseball game between the University club and the Alta club Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at Walker's field. The staid and dignified members of the two clubs will don baseball togs and imagine they are boys again. The game will not be played in the interest of charity this year as usual, since the clubs consider that the public have been called upon to patronize enough charity entertainments recently. So the contest will be simply for sport and as a test of the relative skill of the athletic representatives of the two organizations. A smoker will be given in the evening on the roof garden of the University club, to which the members of the Alta club will be invited, showing that the simple and defeated will cherish no hard feelings. A feature of the evening will be singing by a double quartette composed of members of both clubs. Some sort of professional entertainment will also be given. The lineup for the baseball game and the full details of the program for the smoker will be announced in a few days.

One of the most effective works of charity in Salt Lake, in which a number of prominent society women are interested, is the playgrounds at Liberty park. New features have been added by the director of the grounds, Miss Emily Jessup, who is particularly successful in her work with children. The enlarging of the grounds has enabled the playgrounds association to put in more field games for the little folks, and everything is especially interesting at present. Miss Jessup's class in sewing at 2 o'clock in the afternoon and the story telling hour at 4:30 o'clock are proving drawing cards. It is the desire of the association to have more children enjoy the grounds.

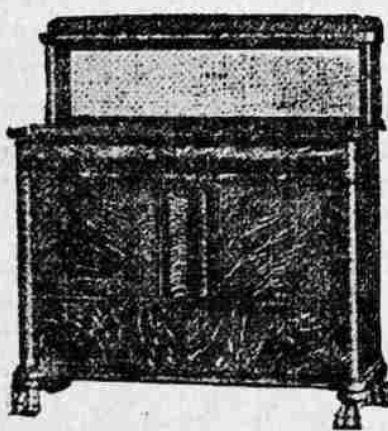

The athletic young women of Salt Lake society are interested in the tennis tournament which will open at the Country club Monday, August 28. Miss Kate Williams, the last year's champion, will enter again this year, and is enthusiastic over the coming sport. Mrs. T. Griffin will also enter. Entries will close Thursday, and a meeting will be held Thursday night at the Alta club to complete details for the tournament.

Beautiful Dining Room Furniture EVERY HOUSEWIFE'S PRIDE

People everywhere are being converted to the thought that beautiful dining room furniture contributes largely to the ease, rest and comfort one should enjoy at meal time. This does not mean that expensive, elaborate furniture is necessary, for often modest, well chosen pieces add the charm and the touch that complete the harmony of the room.

$2.70

This dining room set comes in golden oak, highly polished, especially noticeable is the careful workmanship displayed in every piece.

The China Cabinet possesses graceful lines and would heighten the artistic effect of your cut glass and china. The Buffet is a model of beauty and utility. It has ample drawers and linen space, the mirror is of the best beveled plate glass.

The Six Chairs have cane seats, well braced backs, full box construction. The Table belonging to this set is of the best quarter-sawn oak, highly polished—the pedestal style—our price is $18.50 for the table.

When you see this set now being displayed in our show window you will agree with us that the price we ask is accounted for in every piece—and that quality would have to be sacrificed to produce these pieces at a lower COST.

We sell the entire set or the individual pieces at the prices quoted.

tournament. Practice games are being played daily at the Country club by both the men and women contemplating entering the contest.

Brighton continues just as brisk and busy as ever, and the season this year promises to last longer than usual. During the past week there have been many new guests, both at the cottages and at the hotel, and every day has brought forth some new amusement for the hosts of pleasure seekers. Last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Dean Brayton, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Keyser and other friends made a horseback trip to Lake Mary and over the divide above Lake Katherine, returning in the early evening. The same night a merry party of nearly a score made the ascent of Mount Majestic in the late moonlight and arrived at the top to see the sun rise over the thirty ranges of mountains of the Rockies in sight from that point. Tuesday morning another party made the trip over the mountains to the Midway Hotpots, returning the same evening. Thursday the girls making the house party in the Dey cottage, took the ride to Park City and back. Friday another party of friends rode over to the Hotpots to enjoy the splendid trout dinner there, returning in the evening.

Numerous parties have enlivened the week, little Sarah Moyle celebrating her birthday last Sunday with a children's party, and Marion Morris, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Morris, entertaining ten little folks at a similar affair on Thursday. Mrs. W. W. Riter has returned for the rest of the month and taken the Rawlins cottage which Miss Theresa Godbe has had all summer, for the remainder of the season. Miss Linda Jessup and her brother, Roger, are settled in the Putnam cottage, where the rest of the family will join them shortly. Miss Minette Baer and Mrs. George Auerbach came up Wednesday and are at the hotel for a few days. Mrs. Frank Jennings has joined the colony in the Brown cottage. Mrs. H. L. Nelson, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Morris, returned on Friday to her home. Mrs. Anthony Godbe and her children, who have spent the entire summer there, returned early in the week. Miss Annie Godbe is spending a fortnight with Miss Miriam Brooks in Camp Clara. Lieutenant and Mrs. Huddleston are guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Walker. The young girls who have made a house party in the Frank Godbe cottage are returning to the city for the late summer time festivities, but Mrs. Godbe and Miss Edith and Miss Isabel Shiffer will remain some time longer. A great many Salt Lake residents are planning to go up today to the Midway Hotpots and Monday there, and in fact during the present week large parties are going up for a short stay if no longer.

The young girls who are guests in the Dey cottage had a big bonfire party on Friday night, when fudge and popcorn and other accessories were much in evidence. Altogether Brighton as a summer resort is growing every year in popularity.

Miss Mae O'Neill, Salt Lake's talented young coloratura soprano, whose beautiful voice heard at the sacred concerts held in St. Mary's cathedral a few months ago was a revelation to the members of local music circles, is sojourning in the eastern states, where her remarkable voice and pleasing method of interpretation are winning flattering press notices and the admiration of all who hear her sing.

Recently Miss O'Neill sang at a public musicale given at the summer home of some friends with whom she is visiting at Kewwadin beach, near Port Huron, Mich. She was compelled to respond to several encores before her delighted auditors would consent to let her retire, and the music critics were profuse in her praise and in praising great things for "the charming little songstress who is a long way from her home on the shores of America's great dead sea."

Miss O'Neill will return home after a month's travel, early this week.

The Los Angeles Examiner of August 4 contains the following item of interest in Salt Lake: "Mrs. W. G. Whitney's daughter, Marguerite, of North Rose avenue, Pasadena, has as her guests two of Salt Lake's most beautiful and prominent girls, Misses Jasmine and Vivian Smith, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. George K. Smith. Numerous parties are being planned for the charming visitors. One of which will be given this evening at the Bush garden by Dr. and Mrs. Greeley."

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Hosford of Omaha have been spending a few days at the Hotel Utah, on their way home from Yellowstone. Mrs. Hosford, who was formerly Miss Mary Lee Shane, was a popular visitor to this city five years ago and is renewing pleasant friendships made at that time. Mr. and Mrs. Hosford were entertained at dinner Friday night by Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Kiser at their home, 1600 South Thirteenth East. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Davis of Omaha, who are also at the Utah on their way home from Yellowstone, were also guests at the dinner. The party will leave for Omaha today.

Mrs. S. A. Bull of San Francisco, who is the guest of Mrs. H. H. Lawson, is being extensively entertained by her friends in this, her former home. Mrs. John Reed will give a small bridge luncheon in Mrs. Bull's honor at her home in the Mozart apartments, 550 East Third South street, Tuesday morning. Mrs. W. D. Leonard of Garfield entertained informally at a luncheon Friday in compliment to Mrs. Bull. The popular visitor was also the guest of honor at a luncheon Thursday given by Mrs. Eugene Chandler. Mrs. Bull probably will return home the latter part of this week.

The usual table d'hôte luncheon will be served Wednesday at the Country club, to be followed by a card party to be given by the club. Saturday night the table d'hôte luncheon, with several small parties to follow, will be as popular as usual.

Mrs. R. Harkness will entertain at luncheon Wednesday at 1:30 o'clock at the Hotel Utah.

A pretty Japanese party was given by Miss Kathryn Behan on Saturday evening, August 12, at the home of her aunt, Mrs. L. N. Putnam No. 245 South Fifth East street. The house was charmingly decorated with Japanese lanterns, pink and white sweet peas and chrysanthemums. The evening was spent in playing some pretty flower games, after which delicious refreshments were served by the Misses Rosaline and Marguerite Putnam and Ethlyn Slater. Prizes were won by Mrs. O. K. Clark, the Misses Ella Canning and Margaret Taylor and Messrs. Willis Impey and J. S. Frink. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Clark, the Misses A. B. Loftis, Ella Canning, A. M. Townley, Lavell Pyper, Kathryn Carroll, Margaret Taylor, Ivy Taylor, Ollie Naylor and Messrs. J. S. Frink, Willis Impey, J. Putnam, D. J. Morrison, M. J. Kane, H. T. Gauss, O. E. McMullin, A. Rodwell and E. Krayenbuhl.

Mrs. Alex Pickering entertained her card club at the Commercial club at luncheon Saturday at 12:30 o'clock.

Members of the Biliken club were entertained Thursday evening by Mrs. Patrick Harlin at her home on Sherman avenue. Goldenglow and sunflowers formed the decorations. Baskets of the goldenglow tied with large yellow bows were used as a centerpiece for the supper table. A lace cloth was spread over yellow satin. "Five hundred" was played. The prizes were won by Mrs. Myrtle Smith and Miss Maud Ford. The club will have its next regular monthly meeting with Miss Hazel Bishop on West South Temple, the latter part of September.

Miss Lillian Riley entertained at 500 Saturday afternoon at her home, 614 South Fourth East street. The house was decorated in a color scheme of yellow, goldenglow and sunflowers furnishing the effective adornment. The table cards were hand painted in sunflowers. The color scheme was carried out in the luncheon and was especially emphasized in the mints and ices. Assisting the hostess in entertaining were Miss Anna Stahl and Miss Chlo Young.

Mrs. Elizabeth Stocking entertained at a small bridge party Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Gustave Scheeling, No. 8 Annex apartments, in honor of her guest, Mrs. E. H. Sargent of Washington.

Elder and Mrs. Alfred C. Rees were given a farewell party at the Little Mountain home of Charles D. Harding and family in Emigration canyon Friday afternoon. The Rees family are preparing to remove from the Seventeenth to the Twenty-first ward. An extensive feast was spread on the lawn and a programme of music, recitations and addresses was carried out.

Much interest is felt among the musical women in Salt Lake society in the lectures of Miss Florence Ellingwood Allen, which will be given at Rowland Hall Monday, Wednesday and Friday afternoons at 3 o'clock. The subjects for the lectures will be: "What is Good Music," "Picture Painting in Tones," and "Some Elements of Musical Form."

WEDDINGS AND ENGAGEMENTS

Friends in this city have received news of the marriage of Miss Carrie J. Steward, formerly of Salt Lake, to Luther J. Selker of Oskaloosa, Ia. The wedding took place August 9 at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. George J. Steward, Mr. and Mrs. Selker are expected in Salt Lake this week on a trip to the coast. They will remain here several days and a number of entertainments will be given in their honor. The wedding was the culmination of an early romance. Miss Steward and Mr. Selker were boy and girl sweethearts in their home in Oskaloosa. When Miss Steward returned home last fall after living in Salt Lake for several years the love affair was renewed. Miss Steward was for a number of years connected with the suit department at Walker Brothers and was later with Gray Brothers. She counts her friends in Salt Lake by the hundred, both in a business and a social way, all of whom rejoice in her happiness. Mr. Selker is a prominent business man of Oskaloosa.

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Love announce the engagement of their daughter, Lou, to Ernest C. Fullmer. The marriage will take place early in September.

Mrs. James Anderson announces the marriage of her daughter, Lillian M. to Ezra Cox of Beaver, Utah, the wedding being solemnized August 14. It was informal. Mr. and Mrs. Cox will reside at Berkeley, Cal. for the coming year, when Mr. Cox will continue his post graduate law course.

Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Hillam, Jr., announce the engagement of Miss Alice Bowden to Nephi Hodgson. The wedding will take place early in September.

Miss Lucile Young and Lawrence J. Hayes who were married Wednesday at high noon at the home of the bride's father, J. Wash Young, 61 Third avenue, are now enjoying a honeymoon trip in Yellowstone. They will return home about September 1. The wedding was one of the loveliest social events of the week. The ceremony was performed by Elder Junius Wells. The parlors were decorated in green and white. An aisle was formed from the doorway to the mantelpiece by ropes of smilax and white sweet peas. The mantelpiece, banked with palms and ferns, served as an altar. The bride wore a simple gown of white marquisette, embroidered in pink, over white mesaline. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses. Mendelssohn's wedding march was played by Mrs. May Snell. The dining room, where a buffet breakfast was served, following the ceremony, was adorned in a color scheme of pink and green. On the table was a centerpiece of pink gladiolus in a crystal basket. Bowls of pink sweet peas surrounded the centerpiece, and the same delicate blossoms were scattered over the snowy cloth. Smilax, ferns and palms completed the decoration of the room.

Miss Lulu Ormsby of Rexburg, Ida., daughter of Dr. and Mrs. O. C. Ormsby, and Harold Goff, instructor at the University of Utah, were married at the temple at noon Wednesday. A reception was given at the home of the bride, Mrs. Lillian Handley, Mayor and Mrs. Hyrum Goff of Midvale, Wednesday evening.

A pretty home wedding of the past week was that of Miss Helen Johnson of this city and Arthur Cox of Bethany, Mo., which took place Tuesday evening at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Agnes Johnson, 203 East Third South street. The bride wore a white lingerie gown, inset with Irish crochet medallions in a daisy design. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses. The bridesmaid, Miss Lillian Handley, wore pink silk and carried pink roses. Ernest Baer was best man. The house was decorated in pink and white roses. A wedding supper followed the ceremony. The table had a centerpiece of pink and white roses, arranged in a tall vase. The couple have gone on a honeymoon to the temple. Mr. and Mrs. Cox will make their home in this city.

Miss Georgia Reynolds, daughter of Mrs. Mary Reynolds, 343 Wall street, will be married Wednesday in the temple to Frank M. Gibson.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Anderson, formerly of Manti, announce the engagement of their daughter May to W. L. Lindsay of Nounah, Idaho. The wedding will take place early in September.

Jacob T. Raleigh and Miss Evelyn M. Redman were quietly married Thursday afternoon by Deputy County Clerk J. U. Eldredge and are now enjoying a honeymoon in Detroit. The marriage was a surprise to the friends of the couple.
